To

Mr. SAM BO,

Director of Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association

Subject : Regarding the request for registration of Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association at Ministry of Interior.

Reference : Letter (without reference number) dated April 11, 2008, requesting for the registration of Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association.

With regard to the aforesaid subject and reference, I am hereby pleased to inform you that the Ministry of Interior has already agreed to register the Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association, whose head office's address is at House No. 915, Street 71K, Ta Nguon village, Kakap quarter, Dangkor district, Phnom Penh. It is in the meantime advised that the Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association should from this effect carry out its activities conformably with its statute deposited at the Ministry of Interior and in a neutral manner without regard to the race, religion, political trend in favour of and as a tool of any political party.

Cambodian-American Mobile Clinic for Children Association shall, however, be required to reapply for its registration according to the legal procedures upon the effect of the Law on Association and Non-Governmental Organization.

Sincerely Yours,
